

Four players playing with Texas Rush had a successful weekend for the El Salvador U20 National team as they helped their team to a 3-1 win over Panama at the U20 CONCACAF U20 Championships. The victory over Panama assures El Salvador a birth in the 2013 U20 World Championships where they will join the USA, Mexico and Cuba as representatives from CONCACAF.

Kevin Barahona, Diego Coca Galdmez, Giovanni Zavaleta and Bryan Bonilla (not pictured) are playing at Texas Rush as part of an international exchange program between Rush and FESA, a multi sport program for Salvadoran youth.

Soccer America Story