

Roberto Hernandez of the Texas Rush has been invited to attend the U14 National Training Camp August 5-12 at the Home Depot Center in California.

The top 50 players from across the country have been invited in for their first looks in front of the national team coaches. Roberto, a midfielder, is the lone representative from Rush nation to be invited. For a complete list of those invited to the camp, please click here.