

Denver, CO — Rush Travel Services is pleased to announce it's new two year exclusive partnership with Pse Tournament & Event Housing (Pse). This union complements Rush Travel's mission to provide exceptional travel management services and assistance to all Rush Soccer Clubs tournaments. Pse's cutting edge reservation system offers teams and attendees the most convenient way to book their reservations at the best available room rates.

Tournament and Event Housing Services

"We are extremely excited about the partnership with Pse and the level of quality service that they will bring to our organization," said Holly Schulz, Director of Sales, Rush Travel/ Rush Soccer. "Our mission is to provide outstanding travel management and joining forces with Pse allows Rush Travel to provide another complementary service to all current and future tournaments as we attempt to continue consolidation of all travel efforts and leverage our 40,000 member buying power nationwide".

Rush Soccer clubs hosting tournaments can expect faster rebate payment and provide athletes, coaches and families with a better tournament experience. An improved customer experience will assist with each tournaments long-term growth objectives and competitive advantage over other tournaments.

Jeff Lukasak, President of PSE, commented, "We are very excited about our new partnership with Rush Soccer and Rush Travel. Rush Soccer is very committed to the goal of providing their teams with the best possible tournament experience and we are excited to assist them in achieving that goal by providing teams with a very simple way to book their rooms at the best available rates. Our team is looking forward to working with Rush Soccer and multiple Rush Soccer Clubs."

Rush Travel was created in 2011 with one goal in mind: to save traveling Rush soccer clubs time, money, and the hassle of making group travel arrangements. Rush Travel specializes in organizing group soccer travel for their loyal Rush Soccer Clubs. This consolidation of services is helping Rush soccer to expand membership to over 40,000 players and coaches and all helping them to become the best soccer organization in the world.

Pse Tournament Housing is a full-service tournament housing company that specializes in coordinating and managing the hotel accommodation needs for medium to larger scale sports events. The company currently provides services for major events such as the AAU Junior Olympic Games and the 2012 PGA Ryder Cup. They also provide services for many youth and amateur sporting events (i.e. Soccer, Lacrosse, Fast Pitch Softball, etc.) across the United States and have been in business since 2002.

For more information about Pse Tournament Housing and the services they offer, visit their website at www.housingshouldbesimple.com or contact Kevin Brown at 913-945-1354 | kevin.brown@tournamenthotels.com

For more information about Rush Travel and the services they offer, visit their website at <http://rushtravel.org> or contact Holly Schulz at 720.474.2725 | hschulz@rushsoccer.com