

Over 80 Colorado Rush alumni, staff members and friends of the club came out this past week for the 2012 alumni week.

6 days of games, social activities and great soccer was on display as players like Jeb Brovsky (Montreal Impact), Collen Warner (Montreal Impact), Colin Clark (LA Galaxy), Erich Marscheider (Houston Dynamo), Stephen Keel (FC Dallas) and Lindsey Horan (PSG Women) showed up to play and see old friends.

"This week is hands down the best one of the year," exclaimed a giddy Danielle Foxhoven who is in training for the upcoming National Womens Soccer League that will begin in 2013.

"Alumni week means alot to me personally," said Jeb Brovsky. "Getting the old friends together. Some of the best moments of my life have been with these guys."

Click here for a complete breakdown of the weeks events.

Only 365 days until next years alumni week!