Rush Soccer clubs have been transitioning over to adidas for the last few months – new uniforms, new gear, new mindset. The uniforms are released and look sleeker and more professional than ever before! Players are also upgrading their cleats to adidas, as seen in the picture of our 3v3 champs. The custom adidas product is giving Rush clubs a unified and consistent appearance. The addition of the Chevrolet logo brings Rush to the next level of professionalism. Come May 2014, Manchester United will bear the same Chevrolet logo on the front of their jerseys; we could not ask for better co-branding. Thank you to all our Rush members who have embraced this new transition and we look forward to watching you play in the new gear!
