

2013 was a great year for Rush Soccer so we are counting down the 5 most read stories of the year.

Yesterday we started the countdown with the number 5 story: Chevrolet Becomes Official Rush Sponsor.

At #4 - (With Jersey Help from US Men's National Team Midfielder Michael Bradley)...

4 Called in to U14 National Team Camp

In May, 4 Rush youngsters were invited in to US National Team camp along with 44 of the top players in the country. Texas Rush Goalkeeper Kelsey Brann, Defender Kimberly Rodriguez and Midfielder Sarah Piper and Colorado Rush Forward Civana Kuhlmann joined the ranks of the nations best for the week long camp.

Kuhlmann impressed to the point she was invited to play with the US U17's during their CONCACAF Qualifying tournament in November where at 14, she became the youngest US player to score at a major U17 tournament.

Write down the names of these 4 players, they will be name stays across the country the next few years!