Friday update: The U13 Hawaii Rush Girls won their game Friday and will move the the Semi-finals to take on Heat FC (NV). The U19 New Mexico Rush Boys and Girls have both advanced to the Finals on Sunday. Good luck to all 3 teams in their remaining games!

5 teams have advanced out of group play at the Far West Regionals in Albuquerque, New Mexico and will now play in the quarterfinals starting on Friday.

The U13 Hawaii girls, Quarterfinalists in 2013, won their group after a 4-0 game day 3 win over fellow Rush club New Mexico. They will play Eastside Timbers (OR) Friday afternoon.

The U15 Hawaii Rush boys used a 2-1 win over Heat FC (NV) to claim the second spot in their bracket after ties the first two days of games. The boys will look to improve on their quarterfinal finish in last year's event. They will take on Pateadores San Diego (CA-S) in the quarters.

The U18 New Mexico Rush girls ripped through the competition on the way to their group win, a great showing for the team after a first round exit in 2013. NW Nationals Red (WA) will be the quarterfinal opponent.

The U14 New Mexico Rush girls will play La Roca Premier on Friday after clinching their group with a 1-1 win on Wednesday.

The U19 New Mexico Boys finish out the group of qualifying teams as they finished first in their group. Valparaiso United from neighboring Arizona will be the semi-final opponent on Friday before a Sunday final.

Also continuing on their play, the U19 New Mexico Rush girls, who are playing in a round robin 5 team bracket, are in good position through 2 games with 2 wins and the best goal differential. They will play Legends FC (CA-S) on Thursday.
