

The Northeast Regional Championships (Region I) begin today at the University of Rhode Island. Delaware, New Jersey, Maryland Montgomery, and Pennsylvania Rush will all have teams competing.

The current U13 Delaware Rush are defending Regional Champions after claiming the title at U12 last summer (pictured). They will look to repeat this year with first round match ups against teams from Rhode Island, New York East and Maine in the opening round.

Good luck to all Region I Rush teams this week!
