

The U.S. Soccer Athlete of the Year award is the highest honor awarded to soccer players in the United States. The Male and Female Athletes of the Year awards are the oldest and most prestigious awards of their kind, dating back to 1984 for the men and 1985 for the women, while the Young Male and Young Female awards were added in 1998.

Online votes registered at ussoccer.com count for 50% of the total votes, while the other 50% is represented by votes compiled from members of the national media and U.S. Soccer representatives, including National Team coaches and members of the U.S. Soccer Board of Directors. A player can only win the Young Athlete award once in his or her career.

Rush Soccer's own Lindsey Horan is one of five nominees for the Young Female Athlete of the Year! Please take 10 seconds and cast your vote by visiting this page and clicking next to Lindsey's name and then click vote! Literally it is a matter of seconds and you can vote multiple times so please do!

<http://www.ussoccer.com/about/history/awards/2013-young-female-athlete-of-the-year-finalists.aspx>

Voting is now open and winners are announced on November 26 so please get to work and help one of our own yet again break new ground!